

Weihnachtsgedicht

When the last Kalender-sheets, flutter through the Winter-streets.
And Decemberwind is blowing, then is everybody knowing.
That it is not allzuweit, here she comes, the Weihnachtszeit.

As the snow falls wunderbar and the children happy are.
There is Glatteis on the street and we all a Glühwein need.
We all know, es ist soweit: "She is here, the Weihnachtszeit".

Day by day has so vergang and the holy night does come.
We rush to Kaufhof, Mediamarkt, very close to Herzinfarkt.
Shoppen hirnerbrannte things and the Christmasglocke rings.

Manche holen sich a Tännchen, when this brennt, we cry "Attention".
Rufen for the Feuerwehr: "Please come quick to löschen her!"
Goes the Tännchen of in Rauch, we are standing on the Schlauch.

In the kitchen of the house, Oma makes the Christmasschmaus.
And the mother says als Tester: "We are killed bis to Silvester".
Then she fills her first Glas wine - yes, this is the christmastime!

And the father in the Nebenraum, schmückt a Riesen-Weihnachtsbaum.
He is hanging auf the balls, then he from the Leiter falls...
Steht auf, zum Glück und er ist fein, jetzt the Kinderlein do kommen rein.

Endlich sings the family, ganz schauerlich: "Oh, Chistmastree!"
Zum Song vom grünen Tannenbaum all the Tränen rennen down.
And then Frau Merkel speaks on TV, all around is Harmonie,

Baby-eyes are big and rund and the family feels real gesund,
when unter'm Baum is hocking, nothing can be shocking.
They are so happy, are alright, this happens always Christmaszeit.

And then a jeder in the house, is packing die Geschenke aus.
Mama finds unter the Tanne, eine brandnew Teflon-Pfanne.
Papa gets a Schlips and Socken, everybody does frohlocken.

Bis Mama in the kitchen runs: "Im Ofen burns the Weihnachtsgans".
Because her nose is very fine, wie jedes Jahr zur Christmastime.
The nervs are laying alle blank, this is klar, by this Gestank.

So you can say the fest is nice, auch wenn this hat so seinen Preis.
